

Equine Cruelty Investigations Course

Recognizing the importance of equine cruelty

Join Aiken Equine Rescue and The Humane Society of the United States for this FREE training

Open to all Law Enforcement, Animal Control, Humane Investigators and Code Enforcement

Topics to be covered:

- Statistics on who commits animal cruelty
- Knowing, interpreting, and applying applicable laws
- Standards of equine care and how to assess physical and living conditions
- Common conditions and potential causes
- Preparing for and executing an equine seizure
- Investigating complaints from beginning to end
- Interviews, warrants, and evidence collection as related to equine crimes

Hands on portion to include:

- Equine identification
- Scene consideration and processing
- Assessment of care and condition

Date: April 25th and April 26th, 2018 (same course both dates)

Hours: 8:30am-5:00pm

Location: Aiken Equine Rescue
532 Glenwood Dr
Aiken, SC 29803

Registration: Email your NAME, AGENCY, & DATE (25th or 26th) with reference to the Equine course to LawEnforcementTraining@humanesociety.org.

THE HUMANE SOCIETY
OF THE UNITED STATES